

I would appreciate your consideration in not allowing lpfm to be given as a priority over fm translators. My family and I depend upon k-love and other like stations for not only spiritual needs but for updates in weather and news. This station (k-love) which utilizes fm translators has been and hope with your consideration will stay a vital part of the way I stay informed.

Thank you for your consideration in this matter.

Adam